

The University of Wisconsin La Crosse Academic Advising Center is committed to providing developmental academic advising grounded in teaching and based on valuing a liberal arts education. Through this process students develop the skills and self-knowledge to be adaptable, accountable and reflective life long learners. This results in the ability to set personal goals and to make intelligent educational, career, and life choices to achieve those goals.