

TEACHING ACADEMIC STAFF IN THE UW SYSTEM

Table of Contents

	Page
I. WHY STUDY ACADEMIC STAFF WHO TEACH?
A. Background	1
B. Rationale For The Study	2
C. Scope Of The Study	3
II. WHO ARE THE INSTRUCTIONAL ACADEMIC STAFF?	3
A. History	4
B. Current Academic Staff Title And Compensation Structure	5
C. Instructional Staff Responsibilities	6
D. Research Staff Responsibilities	7
E. Guidelines for Appointing IAS	8
III. IAS APPOINTMENT TRENDS	10
A. Historic Basis For Increasing Number Of IAS Appointments.	10
B. Current Instructional Academic Staff Appointments	10
C. Disciplinary Array	12
D. Levels of Instruction and Distribution of Undergraduate Course Enrollment	12
E. Full-Time/Part-Time Mix	13
F. Sex and Race	14
IV. APPOINTMENT RULES, POLICIES, AND PRACTICES	14
A. Background	14
1. Differences Between Faculty And Instructional Academic Staff Personnel Policies	15
2. Differences Between Policies For Instructional And Non-Instructional Academic Staff.	16
a) Notice Of Nonrenewal	16
b) Dismissal For Cause	17
c) Nonrenewal Process	17
B. Instructional and Research Academic Staff Appointment Types	17
1. Fixed Term Appointments	18
a) Terminal Appointments	19
b) Renewable Appointments	20
c) Rolling Horizon Appointments	21
2. Indefinite Appointments	22
C. Promotions	22
D. Hearing of IAS Appeals, Complaints And Grievances	23
E. Fringe Benefits	23
F. Other Issues Related To Job Security	24
1. Limitations On Successive Fixed Term Appointments	24
2. Non-Tenure Track Faculty Considered	25
3. Increased Use of Part-Time Faculty Appointments	26
G. Summary and Conclusions	26

V.	INTEGRATING IAS INTO INSTITUTIONAL LIFE	28
A.	Governance	29
1.	Formal Structure and Traditions of Institutional Governance	29
2.	Faculty Status	30
3.	Barriers To Participation	31
a)	Time And Part-Time Status	31
b)	Faculty Policies And Traditions	32
c)	Academic Freedom And Freedom Of Expression	33
d)	Status And Respect	33
B.	Assessing And Improving Teaching Performance	34
1.	How Are Expectations Of Performance Expressed?	34
2.	Related Issues for Review	35
3.	Evaluation Tools	35
4.	Who Performs The Evaluation?	36
5.	Opportunities For Professional Development And Improving Performance	36
6.	Orientation Programs	36
C.	Impact on Faculty and Students of IAS Assignments and Responsibilities	37
D.	Summary And Conclusions	37
VI.	CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS	39
A.	Integration Of IAS Into Institutional Life	39
B.	Personnel Policies	41
APPENDICES
1.	Wisconsin Statutes Defining Faculty And Academic Staff	43
2.	Category B Academic Staff Compensation Schedule	44
3.	Category B Academic Staff By Institution And Title	45
4.	1987 To 1997 Change in UW System Faculty as % of Instructional Workforce	46
5.	1996-97 IAS by Discipline	47
6.	IAS Assignments: Distribution of Course Enrollment by Student Level	49
7.	Distribution of Course Enrollment by Instructor Type	50
8.	Comparisons of Faculty and Category B Academic Staff by Sex	52
9.	Comparisons of Faculty and Category B Academic Staff by Ethnicity	53
10.	Fixed-Term Terminal Appointments of 0-1 Year	54
11.	Fixed-Term Renewable Appointments by Institution	55
12.	Fixed-Term Renewable Appointments by Contract Length	55
13.	Rolling Horizon Appointments by Title and Institution	56
14.	Indefinite Appointments by Title and Institution	56
15.	Assignments Along the Career Ladder for Selected Category B Titles	57
16.	Data for Figure 5: Assignments Along the Career Ladder	58
BIBLIOGRAPHY
Instructional Academic Staff Steering Committee Members		62