Description: "A Day at the University" was a program conducted for middle-school Hispanic students from the Sheboygan area school district. Students were bused to campus from their respective schools. They were greeted by the mayor of Sheboygan, Juan Perez, along with the Sheboygan superintendent. Students spent the day learning about college by attending workshops which included a panel of current Hispanic college students and college bound Hispanic high school students. The day culminated with a concert by the group "Locos Por Juana". A free evening performance was open to the community by the musical group.
