He scored 13 points and grabbed eight rebounds as the Blugolds snapped a six-game losing streak against the Titans. Probst came back with 26 points in a four-point road win at UW-River Falls, just two shy of the career-high 28 he totaled against Marian College (Wis.) three weeks ago. For the week, Probst was 14-of-25 from the field (56.0 percent) including four-of-seven from beyond the arc. He also nailed all seven his free throw attempts. UW-Stevens Point received eight first-place votes in this year's preseason poll. The Pointers secured their league-leading 24th conference championship trophy and fourth WIAC tournament plaque last season.
