2007-08 PRESEASON PICKS

Defending conference champion, UW-Stevens Point is the preseason favorite of the league's sports information directors to win the 2008 WIAC men's basketball title.

UW-Stevens Point received eight first-place votes in this year's preseason poll. The Pointers secured their league-leading 24th conference championship trophy and fourth WIAC tournament plaque last season. The 2006-07 squad was ranked No. 1 in the NCAA Division III for seven weeks and advanced to the sectional semifinals of the NCAA tournament.

UW-Stevens Point has led the NCAA Division III in free throw percentage and fewest turnovers per game the past two years. The Pointers set a Division III record by shooting 82.3 percent from the free throw line in 2006-07 and established WIAC single-season marks with 309 three-point field goals made and 744 three-pointers attempted. In the last 10 seasons, UW-Stevens Point has compiled a 116-44 record against WIAC adversaries.

UW-Whitewater received the remaining first-place vote in the conference predictions and is pegged for second in the league ledger. The Warhawks won the WIAC regular-season and tournament titles during the 2005-06 campaign. UW-Whitewater has registered 18-plus victories in each of head coach Pat Miller's six seasons and finished fourth-place or better in the nine-team conference derby 18 of the last 19 years. The 2007-08 season begins with four of the first six games at home and finishes with three of the final five WIAC contests on the road.
